The Amy 32 is designed to give you and your family all the space you need to create and share great memories together. With five bedrooms, including a guest room, the Amy 32 will give you and the whole family all the space you could need. The unique charm of this design comes from the overly generous open plan living area.

The family and meal areas are close to the alfresco dining area and there's a well-located rumpus room nearby for the kids to congregate in and create untold mischief in. Ideal for both entertaining and for a quiet night in, the Amy 32 has been designed just the way you like it.
